BOOK CLUB First Monday in the Month

The Book Club did meet last Monday with 5 of us in attendance. The book that we read during December and then discussed was "A Harvest of Thorns" by Corban Addison. This novel was about corporate greed within the fashion industry and explores the human stories behind the global labour sourcing behind the way clothes, that we all buy, are made. It is an engrossing description of the manner in which workers from third world countries are exploited and forced to work for a pittance to manufacture clothes to be sold in the most affluent countries.

The book that we are going to read this month is a psychological thriller "Dark Mode" by Ashley Kalagian Blunt. This is a story of a woman in hiding. Her life has been completely offline, no internet, no social presence, no photos. One day there is a murder and the victim looks just like her. As more murders of similar looking women occur, she has to confront her worst fear. She has been found

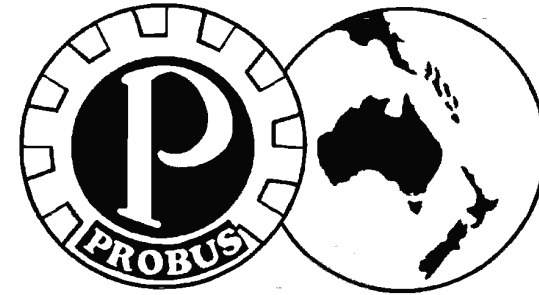

SIP N'CHAT Third Tuesday in the Month

This takes place at 10:30am at Glenroy RSL. In the past this activity was not held in January and some members questioned this omission. The coming January 21st we will book a table in the Bistro and all are welcome.

STROLLERS Fourth Monday in the Month

Monday 27th January - Stroll to Glenroy Lookout.
If you didn't know that Glenroy had a lookout come along to Glenroy RSL at 10am for a stroll to Glenroy Lookout. When we return we will lunch at the RSL. All welcome.
